There are many icons to click on to give you information along the way.

Welcome to the Entrance Hall

What are some indicators that you are preparing to step back in time? Name three things you see that are from a different time period.

Watch the video shown here:

_____ was the first governor of the commonwealth of Virginia.

_____ was the second elected governor of the commonwealth.

Look around the entrance of the palace. What do you see lining the walls?

Let's head over to the Parlor now.

What were two uses of the parlor?

Now, go across the Entrance Hallway to the Pantry.

How is the pantry in the Governor's Palace different than a pantry we think about today? What was it used for? What do we use pantries in our home for?

---

---

Next, head back to the Entrance Hallway and towards the First Floor Hallway. The Dining Room is on your right.

What important political figure often ate in the dining room when visiting?

---

Why did Lord Dunmore need so much space while living in the palace?

---

Now, leave the Dining Room and head upstairs to the Daughter's Room.

Why were there two beds in the daughter's room?

---

Across the hall from the Daughter's Room is the Dressing Room

What was the dressing room used for? Who used it?

---

At the end of the hallway is the Middle Chamber. Let's visit there next!

Describe the middle chamber. What did Lady Dunmore use the room for?

---

---

---

---

Branching off this room is Her Ladyship's Chamber and His Lordship's Chamber. Let's head toward Her Ladyship's Chamber.

What was this chamber used for?

---

Our last destination is the Ballroom. To get there, head downstairs and turn left.

The ballroom was added to the palace in the _____.

What instrument might have been played in the ballroom? _____

What room is attached to the ballroom? _____

Now is your chance to explore more and visit any any rooms of your choice to click on some of the 3D objects and furniture. Which is your favorite object in the house? Why?

Final Thoughts

Now that you have had a chance to visit the Governor's Palace, tell me 3 interesting things you learned or saw during your visit.

Would you like to visit the Governor's Palace? Why or why not?
